WORKING BEE FEBRUARY 2026

Hello ALL Whakapapa Mountain Club members.

This summer we have to re-clad one side of our precious hut and we need your help to do it! You don't need any past experience with building, there will be people there to guide you, we just need as many hands as possible.

That being said, if you are a builder or a specialist in window repairs (for the bunk room), your help would be phenomenal.

We have two proposed dates in February, which are the weekends of

- 21st-22nd
- 28th-1st (March)

If you can help on one of these dates could you please let myself or one of the committee members know so we can plan and confirm the date.

THE RING OF FIRE IS BACK.

After a break since 2023, the revered Ring of Fire alpine ultramarathon around Mount Ruapehu is making its much anticipated return on Friday 27th March – Sunday 29th March 2026 – this time under the care of the Ohakune Events Charitable Trust, who now also deliver iconic The Goat and Tussock Traverse events AND with new courses!

Known as one of the most demanding and rewarding events on the Aotearoa trail running calendar, the Ring Of Fire takes you on a full circumnavigation of the formidable Mount Ruapehu. It's a true test of endurance – physically, mentally, and spiritually – with rugged alpine terrain, high altitude, and vast volcanic landscapes that will challenge and inspire every step of the way.

Runners traverse a wild mix of desert plateaus, scoria and lava fields, native bush, tussock-covered ridgelines, and clear mountain streams. The journey is tough and beautiful, with big climbs and even bigger views across one of our most treasured landscapes.

Whether you're coming to race, to explore, or to reconnect with this incredible place – welcome back to the Ring Of Fire.

 RING OF FIRE ENTRIES OPEN 14TH OCTOBER 2025 – 9AM ***
